St. Augustine of Henry Flagler

4 Days March 29 to April 1, 2023

Day 1 – St. Augustine, FL - Dinner at Ice Plant Bar – Today, on arrival in Florida, a motorcoach will be waiting to transfer you to your St. Augustine Historic District hotel for a two-night stay. Dinner is included this evening at the Ice Plant Bar, a dining experience straight out of the Gilded Age. The Ice Plant was Florida's first power and ice plant since 1907 which used to make 125 tons of ice for local fishing and shrimping industries. (D)

Day 2 - Flagler Legacy Guided Tour - San Sebastian Winery & Tasting - "The Lives & Wives of Henry Flagler" Dinner Show - This morning after breakfast, meet your local guide for a Flagler Legacy Tour. If you stroll through the area of St. Augustine immediately west of downtown, you will experience the extraordinary influence of New Yorker Henry Morrison Flagler. He was a co-founder of Standard Oil with John D. Rockefeller. Flagler stepped back from daily responsibilities of this successful venture and launched a second career in Florida.

Over the next thirty years, he built resort hotels from Jacksonville to Miami and the Florida Keys linked by his Florida East Coast Railway. Steamships took visitors to his resorts at Nassau in the Bahamas and to Havana, Cuba. His Overseas Railway through the Florida Keys was recognized as the "Eighth Wonder of the Modern World." Ultimately, Flagler was regarded as the "Father of Modern Florida" for his investments in the sunshine state. St. Augustine exhibits some of his most lasting contributions and was his chosen location for his final resting place, the Flagler Mausoleum. Included is a Historic Tour of Flagler College, the former Hotel Ponce de Leon. Built by Henry Flagler at the height of the Gilded Age and was once one of the most exclusive resorts of its day.

After free time downtown for lunch on own and shopping, visit see a couple of the churches Flagler help build. Cathedral Basilica of St. Augustine and the Memorial Presbyterian Church which was dedicated to his daughter and where Flagler and his family were laid to rest.

The afternoon features a visit and tasting at the San Sebastian Winery. Take an interesting journey through the complete wine making process. Enjoy a self-guided walking tour of the 18,000 square foot wine production facility. Discover the art of winemaking as you learn the important details of the 5,000 gallon stainless steel tanks where the wine is fermented and stored prior to bottling.

This evening, enjoy dinner at the Raintree Restaurant, a restored St. Augustine 1879 Colonial Victorian Home. Following dinner, you enjoy the "The Lives & Wives of Henry Flagler". Hear the story of empire builder Henry Morrison Flagler. His tremendous accomplishments during the glorious Gilded Age are seen through the eyes of his three captivating wives. As each tells her own story the true Henry Flagler comes alive. (B,D)

Day 3 - The Lightner Museum – Jekyll Island, GA - Guided Tram Tour of Jekyll Island - Start the day with a visit to the Lightner Museum, a monument to the lavishness of the Gilded Age. The Lightner Museum features three floors of artifacts from the 19th and 20th Centuries, including exquisite Victorian clothing and art, stained Tiffany glass, and painting and oddities from around the world. Enjoy lunch on own at the Café Aclazar in the Lightner.

This afternoon travel to Jekyll Island, GA a private winter retreat for wealthy during the Gilded Age. On arrival, enjoy a Guided Tram Tour of Jekyll Island. In 1886, 53 prominent American tycoons founded the Jekyll Island Club, and members created an exclusive gilded era island retreat on Georgia's coast for their family and friends. These empire builders shaped our nation and likewise laid the foundation for Jekyll Island's rich future. This guided trolley tour of the 240-acre historic district includes entry into a historic cottage and admission into the Mosaic Gallery and Faith Chapel at your leisure.

Then check into the Holiday Inn Resort on the beach at Jekyll Island offering panoramic views of the Atlantic Ocean, wide open lawns, and a relaxing atmosphere. Enjoy your overnight stay on Jekyll Island. Dinner is included this evening at your hotel Resort offering several entree options. (B,D)

Day 4 - Depart for Home - This morning, after a leisurely breakfast, check out of your hotel. You are transported to the airport to meet your return flight home. (B)
